TYPOGRAPHIC PORTRAIT SOLUTIONS:

Figures 1 through 7 depict working on an assembly line, with imagery that deals with complexity and repetition, to conceptual interpretations.

Figures 8 through 15 focus on the subject of being lost. Conceptually driven solutions and letterforms are combined with literal imagery to express the intended message.

TYPOGRAPHIC PORTRAIT SOLUTIONS:

Figures 1 through 8 represent the mystery and drama associated with crime scene investigation.

Figure 1 is an emotional depiction, while figure 2 is a classically rendered interpretation. Most all solutions in the typographic portrait project fall between these two sensibilities.

The imagery in figures 3 through 8 varies greatly in terms of interpretation of procedures and techniques related to crime scene investigation.

TYPOGRAPHIC PORTRAIT SOLUTIONS:

Figures 1 through 7, which represent postal workers, and figures 8 through 15, which represent librarians, all use indigenous thematic typography associated with these two professions. The cancellation marks differ from one another in terms of scale, color, texture, and cropping, while the images for librarian include rubber stamps, handwriting, and typewriter type, which set the stage for an array of executions that capture the historical activity of the library.
