TYPOGRAPHIC PORTRAIT SOLUTIONS:

Figures 1 through 5 address the subject of being a butterfly collector. Figure 1 is a formal investigation that deals with movement by combining abstract elements and literal imagery. Figure 1 is a formal investigation that deals with movement by combining abstract elements and literal imagery. Figures 2, 4 and 5 use the butterfly specimen display by substituting letterforms to represent butterflies. Figure 3 is a depiction of the activity of catching butterflies.

Figures 6 through 10 deal with insomnia. Solutions range from depicting the event in figures 6, 9 and 10, to figure 7, which refers to a possible cause and figure 8, which references a remedy.

TYPOGRAPHIC PORTRAIT SOLUTIONS:

Figures 1 through 4 are expressions of Seasonal Affective Disorder (SAD), which is a type of depression that occurs usually in the winter. These emotionally driven solutions address the anguish of this depressive disorder.

The subject of map making is expressed in figures 5 through 14. Topology is a recurring theme, as is the reconfiguring of traditional maps using an array of executions.

TYPOGRAPHIC PORTRAIT SOLUTIONS:

Needlepoint, which is a type of embroidery using yarns of either cotton, wool or silk that is stitched through an open weave of canvas mesh, is the subject depicted in the following images.

Solutions address either the materials, the process, or the results of doing needlepoint.

The gridlike pattern of a needlepoint canvas is used to represent the underpinnings of many of the solutions.
