EXT. LABRADOR PARK SHELTERED AREA. LATE AFTERNOON.

A girl is sitting on the bench and dressed in a smart and casual attire with a laptop on her lap. This girl is named Nancy. She reads through articles about wizards and is amazed of how such beautiful wizardry exists in the real world but causing such harm to the real world.

NANCY (TO HERSELF)

Amazing,! Such beautiful sorcery exists in the real world and yet it is causing harm to people! I've got to find out more about such magic to prevent any danger from happening around the world and maybe I could have another solved mystery!

Just then, Nancy heard the sound of magical chimes and immediately looked but only to see a mysterious back figure wearing a long jacket walking towards a mysterious entrance. Nancy grew even more curious. She puts her laptop down and decided to follow it.

EXT. LABRADOR PARK GUN EMPLACEMENT AREA. LATE AFTERNOON.

Nancy is hiding behind the bushes and saw the mysterious figure putting a little goblin creature carefully in the box. This is Newt.

NANCY (TO HERSELF) (GASPS)

A wizard! With Creatures!

As Newt is about to put the creature back to the box, the creature slipped and ran from him making Newt to follow him but leaving the box in the tunnel. Nancy walked towards the small tunnel and slowly reached for the box. Newt, however managed to spot Nancy reaching for the box.

NEWT (TO NANCY)

Don't touch that!

NANCY (TO NEWT)

What were you using those creatures for? Were they trying to cast a spell and bring harm to the world?

NEWT (TO NANCY) (MUMBLES)

It's more than what you think.

Suddenly, a small unicorn with wings came flying at Nancy's face. Nancy was struggling to get that creature out.

Newt saw that creature and immediately took it from her face and puts it back to his box.

NANCY (TO NEWT) (SHOCKED)
What was that?

NEWT (TO NANCY)
Don't worry. That- was just a little pegasus.

Newt carries the pegasus on his hand and smiles at it.

NANCY (TO NEWT)
So, is this your creature?

NEWT (TO NANCY)
Yes, I have to keep them safe so they won't be exposed to the real world.

Nancy looked at Newt and realised she has judged wizards the wrong way.

NEWT (TO NANCY) (CONT'D)
Um..I got to trace for more creatures.

NANCY (TO NEWT)
Oh. Okay.

Nancy sees Newt leaving her and walking on the path carrying another box.

NANCY (V.O.)
Wizards. They are everywhere. Some may say they bring harm to society but not all of them are, Some just need a place to seek for some protection with no harm.

The End.
