Street Harassment:

Street harassment is a form of sexual harassment in public areas. It includes unwanted comments, gestures and touches of a sexual nature.

Anyone can be a victim.
It is important to be prepared to take Action Against Street Harassment.

How to take action?

Action Protocol:

A R R

Assess

Report

Assess

Who, What, When, Where?
When faced with Street Harassment,
take note of your surroundings!
This will help you react appropriately.

React

There is no umbrella reaction.
Assess the situation carefully and decide if a small reaction is better than a big reaction!

Report

Tell an adult about the incident.
This can be a parent or a teacher
you trust. They can help you make a police report to protect you.

Scenario #1

After school, you need to cross the pedestrian crossing to go home.
A stranger at the traffic light says
"You are very cute, what is your name?"

Across the road you see your friendly,
next-door neighbours,
Auntie Mary and Uncle Tom.

Assess

unwanted comments and gestures

"You are very cute, what is your name?"

An unwanted comment can make you feel unsafe and uncomfortable. It can also develop into a worse situation. Your safety may be at risk.

This is Street Harassment.

When?

After school, you need to cross the pedestrian crossing to go home. A stranger at the traffic light says "You are very cute, what is your name?"

Across the road you see your friendly, next-door neighbours, Auntie Mary and Uncle Tom.

When?

After school

Sunlight means its bright out.
Many other students are on their way home. Some of them are being accompanied by guardians.
Most adults are at work.

BIG

Quite, subtle
Ignore
Avoid
Walk away

Loud, obvious
Shout for help!
Run away!
Scold them!

React

Medium reaction

Wave to your neighbours across the road. Wait for them to cross the road to your side and talk to them. The harasser will not continue after he sees other adults that you know.

React

Medium reaction

You are always trying to go for the smaller reaction first for your safety. If ignoring the harasser does not work, move on to a bigger reaction.

React

Report

Immediately!

Tell your neighbours immediately once the harasser is a safe space away!
They can help you to report the incident to the police and inform your own parents.

peak hour

Peak hour is a time in the morning and evening where public transport becomes extremely crowded. There will be people that can help you.

It is harder to pick one person out from the crowd. Be sure to be attentive to what your harasser looks like.

How to react?

React

React.

exit the train

Shout for help and report to mrt staff

React

Scream and scold the guy!

move away to another cabin

push the man away

React

ignore and squeeze away

Stop touching me.

Because you are in a crowded space, you can call for help and people will assist you. Be specific in what is happening to be clear.

Stop touching me.

Try to get away from them as soon as possible. Alight from the train at the next station. Remember the door number. Go to the ticket office.

Tell an official.

Tell an MRT official about the encounter with as much detail as possible: What the harasser was wearing, what they looked like. This will help in making a police report and hunting down the harasser.
