

ViSiON

Description:

ViSiON is a series of photographs that narrates how my view of the world changes as I grow up. From the younger and vulnerable self to the curious and inquisitive me to the times when I trip and fall and finally to the gradual maturation during the process of picking myself up. This is a process of growing up and I would like to use nature to depict the narrative for my series.

