Roddy Hunter: What would Guy Debord have made of Adobe Connect: 'while any genuinely experimental attitude is usable, that word has very often been misused in the attempt to justify artistic actions within an already-existing structure. The only valid experimental proceeding is based on the accurate critique of existing conditions and the deliberate supersession of them. It must be understood once and for all that something that is only a personal expression within a framework created by others cannot be termed a creation. Creation is not the arrangement of objects and forms, it is the invention of new laws on such arrangement.'

Charlotte Webb: Yes, issue of proprietary software mirrors broader discussions about the 'trade offs' we make when engaging with platforms like FB etc

FURTHERFIELD Ruth Catlow & Marc Garrett: i know

Joumana Mourad: Helen nice to e-meet you!

Helen Varley Jamieson: :)

Charlotte Webb: V interesting - I'm always trying to grapple with the 'how much coding should I be able to do to legitimately think of myself as an artists working with the web' question...

Charlotte Webb: it's a balance between techno-centrism and being able to 'change the tyre on the car'

JL: Hi :)

JL: Greetings...from Pancevo, Serbia :)

FURTHERFIELD Ruth Catlow & Marc Garrett: Hi JL ;-)

FURTHERFIELD Ruth Catlow & Marc Garrett: Hi Seth ;-) FURTHERFIELD Ruth Catlow & Marc Garrett: Hi Mariza ;-)

Roddy Hunter: Will 'network management' lead to 'network managerliasm'?

Roddy Hunter: managerialism

anniea: hi Maxime

Helen Varley Jamieson: zdravo jelena :)

JL: Hi, It's wonderful to see you Helen, look forward to your performance

JL: :)

yjguyjhlk: Surely network management has been around since, at least, the height of the BBS. So it's probably more of a question of when it did happen, and not when it will

Helen Varley Jamieson: thanks jelena :)

Maxime Mariom: copie_copains-club.net

Maxime Mariom: copie-copains-club.net

Roddy Hunter: thanks, yjguyjhlk. Interested in corporate concepts of 'management' and 'leadership'. If there will be network 'managerialism' is it also worth thinking about 'network leadership'?

anniea: <http://copie-copains-club.net/>

Helen Varley Jamieson: merci maxime :)

Maxime Mariom: thank you :)

Maxime Mariom: CCC is open to everybody by the way, please join ;)
