After considering these and other options, and trying to imagine how we could 'upgrade' nettime's creaky infrastructure so that it'd at least have a chance, we've reluctantly come to the conclusion that it would be better to make a graceful exit. So we've decided to fold up shop on 30 May..."

helen varley jamieson: agee, the red dot top right means the whole thing is being recorded :)

annia: I was wondering if it also is dependant on computers but is for the future too (as nettime was not unfortunately)

Paul Gagnon 2: does a community such as you describe benefit from social mores being established and agreed?

helen: lol

melindr: lol

Beryl Graham: Yes duration is important for collaboration, rather than just parachuting in Roddy Hunter: hey marc, do you like John Latham's idea from APG of the incidental person who 'interrupts' not 'disrupts'?

netwurker: I wish we could find a new term for "Artist". "Creative" just doesn't seem to cut it.

melindr: beryl- i think it depends on the cultural context- some cultures just collaborate as a given

FURTHERFIELD Ruth Catlow & Marc Garrett: yes Roddy

Beryl Graham: WE had some interesting debate about unMonastery on <https://curatingprofessionalcourse.wordpress.com/> netwurker: tramps!

prakashph: if we're not "Artists" then we're "Anomalies".

netwurker: activists? like it

Deb Howes: YES @helen

Beryl Graham: It's interesting that mainstream advertisers have started using 'disruption' in a sexed up way.

helen: @beryl - have they? how?

Deb Howes: TED loves disruption too

helen: maybe disruption is the new trendy word netwurker: beryl>> since entrpreneurs glommed onto the term about 7 years ago, I've been avoiding using "disruption" melindr: TED schmed..

helen: they gloom onto everything don't they :(

Deb Howes: agree @melindr netwurker: they do helen melindr: its littel ted franchises now..

helen: have they coopted subversion as well?

helen: agree ruth!

Gret: who are these 'younguns' you're talking about?

Gret: how old is 'young'?

agee forever: 20ies

netwurker: the very act of academicalising this discourse sets it apart from the flow, from generative literacies

helen: agree netwurker netwurker: anyone younger than me, Gret. ;)

helen: lol
